Workshop Title

Clear Thinking In Uncertain Times - Essential critical thinking skills for business professionals

Workshop Description

Tired of being told what to think?

This workshop empowers you to master how to think. We'll dismantle the cognitive biases and logical fallacies that sabotage your decisions, and equip you with the essential critical thinking skills you've been missing.

Prepare your audience for a mind-opening experience that will forever change how you approach problem-solving and decision-making.

Learning Objectives

- Pinpoint the 3 most common logical fallacies that undermine sound judgment.
- Apply practical techniques to sharpen your thinking and predict outcomes more accurately.
- Conquer ingrained cognitive biases that have been hindering your progress and potential.

Testimonial

John Ball is a captivating speaker who keeps the audience on the edge of their seats. His ability to weave intricate stories with a touch of humour is truly remarkable. His deep engagement with the audience makes the experience feel personalised and interactive. His insights are thought-provoking, and his delivery is both informative and entertaining. I highly recommend John for any event seeking a truly engaging and memorable speaker.
